SEMINAR: DEPRESSION & SUICIDE

Depression and suicide, like many other forms of mental illness, are little understood by the general public. This leads to bias against those with mental health issues, reducing the number of people who seek help. With the recent death of Mr. Robin Williams, one of America's funniest and most productive comedians ever, it is perhaps right that we talk about this group of diseases. After all, research shows us that nearly one in five Americans has an episode of mental illness every year! Come listen and participate in a dialogue on these important topics with Anne chipchase of 'Ohana Health Plan.
